

Marine coastal observatories, facilities, expertise and data for Europe

The JERICCO-RI is a long-term framework providing high-quality marine data, expertise and infrastructures for Europe's coastal seas. The data are multidisciplinary, standardised, quality controlled, sustained, interoperable and free to access and use.

www.jerico-ri.eu

This project has received funding from the European Commission's Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation programme under grant agreement No 654410. Project coordinator: IFREMER, France.

